Abstract due: January 10, 2007

Session: Environmental Remediation

The Department of Chemical Engineering of the National Technical University of Athens in collaboration with The Athens Institute for Education and Research (ATINER) organizes the 2nd international symposium on Environment, August 2-3, 2007. For information please visit the conference website at www.atiner.gr/docs/Environment.htm.

The aim of the conference is to bring together scholars and students of environment from all disciplines such as education, biology, chemistry, geology, economics, geography, history, political science, communications, environmental health, environmental law & justice, government policy, etc. Special topics will be devoted to Waste and Recycling, Water Resources Engineering, Biological Treatment of Water, Water Quality Engineering, Management, Water Quality Modeling, Treatment Management Strategies Relevant to Water, Surface Quality Control, Quality Control of Water, Development of Tools for Controlling Water Quality, Atmospheric Pollution, Soil Pollution, The Economy of Nature, Politics & Science, Petroleum Waste Management and Natural Methods of Controlling Pollution. Selected papers will be published in a Special Volume of the Conference Proceedings.

The session on Environmental Remediation will specifically deal with science and engineering of contaminant remediation. Topics may include (but not limited to) groundwater and soil remediation, water and wastewater treatment, biological, physical, and chemical processes, treatment chemistry, innovative treatment technologies, natural treatment processes, recalcitrant removal, and environmental management related to remediation.

Please submit a 300-word abstract by January 10, 2007 by email to: Dr. Achintya N. Bezbaruah, (Session Chair), Assistant Professor of Civil Engineering, North Dakota State University, Fargo, ND 58105, USA (e-mail: a.bezbaruah@ndsu.edu, Phone: 701-231-7461, Fax: 701-231-6185).

An abstract should include: (1) Title of Paper, (2) Last and First Name(s), (3) Institutional Affiliation, (4) Current Position, (5) E-mail address, and (6) at least 3 keywords that best describe the subject. For abstract with more than two authors, please indicate the corresponding author.

The registration fee for the conference is 250 euro, covering access to all sessions, 2 lunches, coffee breaks and conference material. Special arrangements will be made with local hotels for a limited number of rooms at a special conference rate.
